Cancellation, Transfers and Substitutions

16. DMT reserves the right to cancel, postpone or otherwise alter the content or date of an event without notice. In such circumstances, DMT may, at its own discretion, return any payment received without penalty of cancellation charge.

17. The following cancellation charges apply. Current charges are:

Notice of Percentage of Cancellation Event Fee charged

29 days or more 25%

14-28 days 50%

Less than 14 days 100%

(Weekends are included in the above calculations).

18. If a delegate fails to attend a course (with no substitution or transfer having been made) this will be deemed as a cancellation and will incur a 100% fee.

19. Transfers and substitutions made less than 21 days before the original course date will incur a charge of £50 per delegate. Where both a MIMMS and HMIMMS course is run at the same centre on the same day, transfers between MIMMS and HMIMMS or vice versa on the first of the course due to candidate a candidate booking error will be at the cost of the original booking fee or the transferred course fee, whichever is higher. No refunds are given.

20. If a delegate is unable to attend an event, one substitution and/or transfer to another event is acceptable. If a candidate is unable to attend the substitution event standard cancellation charges apply within the terms and conditions described above. If no substation event is available cancellation charges apply within the terms and conditions described above.

21. All requests for transfers and substitutions must be submitted in writing.

22. Organisations wishing to make a transfer or substitution must provide the name of the substitute delegate, and/or alternative event details at the time of the request otherwise the booking will be cancelled (see point 18 and 19).

Data Protection

23. DMT does not sell, trade or rent your personal information to others. Your details will be added to the DMT database in order to process your booking, and for the purposes of marketing courses and promoting DMT.

About Disaster Management Training Course Director and Instructors

Course Director, Jonathan Taylor-Edmondson.

Disaster Management Training is a training company dedicated to providing low cost mass casualty, event planning and major incident training to healthcare professionals. Jonathan commenced his career in 1990, joining the cadet scheme run by Powys Ambulance Service in mid Wales. In 1994 he moved to the Central Ambulance Control of the London Ambulance Service (LAS) and he joined the Emergency Planning Unit as an Emergency Planning Manager in 1999.

His position as tactical advisor saw him regularly taking an active role in incident management and he was directly involved in the management and debriefing of numerous serious and major incidents. These include the nail bombing campaign in 1999, the Ladbrooke Grove and Potters Bar rail accidents and more recently the July 7th attacks. He also had responsibility for carrying out event, stadia, exercise and high-risk contingency planning and training.

In 2006 he moved to the British Red Cross, where he led a team of paid staff and 700 volunteers in developing and sustaining London's ability to respond to emergencies. He returned to the NHS in 2010 as an Emergency Planning Officer in National Health Service Kensington and Chelsea and NHS Westminster and then Dorset where he was the health service Olympics lead.

He currently works at Torbay and South Devon NHS Foundation Trust as the Head of Safety, Security and Emergency Planning for Torbay District Hospital, the community provider/community hospitals and the Clinical Commissioning Group and acts as a special advisor to the Swedish disaster authorities.

Our regular instructors also volunteer their time and include:

Course Director, William Kearns – Ambulance Resilience and Emergency Planning Manager and Paramedic from the South West Ambulance Service, vast range of incident management including 7th July London Bombings.

Instructor, Per Ortenwell – Medical Doctor/surgeon working for the Pre-Hospital Disaster Medicine Centre in Sweden with experience in Afghanistan.

Instructor, David Boell – Paramedic and Firefighter with experience as a rescue diver from the Cologne Fire Brigade in Germany.

Instructor, Andre Elbourne Le Brun – Emergency Control room medical dispatcher from the London Ambulance Service.

Instructor Heidi Maidment – Emergency Control room medical dispatcher from the London Ambulance Service.

Instructor, Louise Elstow – Emergency Planning Consultant.

Instructor, Dr Cosmo Scurr – London HEMS doctor, British Red Cross and St John Ambulance

Instructor, Paul Smith -Ambulance Operations Manager with the London Ambulance Service and vast range of incident management experience

Instructor, Shelly Beasley - St John Ambulance coordinator and armed services educator

Instructor, Nick Bell - London Ambulance Paramedic and Emergency Planning Manager and JESIP trainer
